Executor(s): "four of my beloved sons" Eduard [#341], Benjamin [#347], Smith [#343], & John [#349]

Witness(es): Samuel D. Livingston, Richard Waller, & David Hoover

Description:

"Firstly, I give and devise to my beloved wife Hope [#34/1] the plantation on which I live and the following negroes: Boman, a man, Ben, a boy, Mahalia, a girl, and Patt, a woman, and Louisa, her child, and as much of my stock and farming utensils, household and kitchen furniture, as my Executors hereinafter named may think she stands in need of during her natural life, and at her death to be divided among such of my beloved children as may be hereinafter named.

Secondly, I give and devise to my beloved son Smith all that parcel or tract of land on which he now lives, being a part of a survey of [400] acres which I purchased of Benjamine Netherland, beginning at the lower corner of John Curd's [800] acre survey standing on the cliffs of Kentucky River, thence with Curd's back line to John Bradshaw's corner, thence with said John Bradshaw's line to Gabriel Minter's, thence around to the beginning, including all of the [400] acre survey of Netherland's except and what John Bradshaw has, and further I give and devise to my son Smith the two negroes which he has had in possession some time named Jonas and Cairy.

Thirdly, I give and devise to my son John Bradshaw the plantation on which I now live, after the death of my beloved wife Hope, which is bequeathed to her during her natural life, the same being a part of a tract of land of [200] acres which William Bradshaw [#35] bought of John Curd and further, I give and devise to my beloved son John two negroes Bob and Sam. Bob, John now has in his possession.

Fourthly, all the rest of my estate, both real and personal, it is my desire that it be equally divided among the following of my beloved children and grandchildren (to wit) Eduard, Benjamine, Nancy [#342], Polly [#345], Betsy [#344], Kitty [#348]. Each of these, my beloved children, to have the one seventh part.

I give and devise to Nancy Bradshaw [#346/1], my beloved son William's [#346] wife, and her children, that is she is to enjoy the profits arising from it during her natural life or widowhood, that is as long as she remains the widow and relict of William Bradshaw, and on her decease or intermarriage with some other man, then it is my desire that it be equally divided among her children, or sooner, should my Executors hereinafter named think prudent to make such division, which is left to their discretion, which it is my desire that they should take charge of for that purpose.

It is here to be understood that Polly Bradshaw has received a negro man named Joe, and Kitty Campbell a negro girl, the value of which is to be taken into consideration and deducted from their portions.

And lastly, it is my desire that the negroes bequeathed to my beloved wife Hope during her natural life, and the stock, farming utensils, all at her death be equally divided among my beloved children and grandchildren (to wit) Edward, Smith, Benjamine, John, Nancy, Polly, Betsy, Kitty, and Nancy Bradshaw, my son William's wife, and her children, that is for them, her children, to have the one ninth part, she having the profits arising from it in the same manner as has already been stated.

A photograph of a handwritten document, likely a consent or bond, written in cursive. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to read in places. It begins with "this is to certify that I am agreed to the marriage between my daughter Lucy and Kneelely Barnet and do request the Clerk to give him his sense given under my hand this 21st day of July". Below this, there are several lines of text, including "William Bradshaw" and "Charles Philips". The document is written on aged, slightly stained paper.

“A Inventory and Appraisement of the personal estate of Benjamin Bradshaw [#316], dec'd, late of Mercer County

I, the Administrator of Benjamin Bradshaw, dec'd, do return the foregoing two pages to the Mercer County Court as a true and perfect inventory of all the goods and chattels belonging to the estate of s'd decedent as yet come into my hands [4 Feb 1822]. Elizabeth Bradshaw [#316/1], Adm'x.

In obedience to an order of the Mercer County Court to us the undersigned directed . . . have appraised the estate personal of Benjamin Bradshaw, dec'd, as shewn to us by the Adm'x as per the foregoing inventory, which we respectfully report [4 Feb 1822]. Claibourn Bradshaw [#311], Gid'n W. Higgins, & Jas. F. Worthington.

[Feb 1822] The foregoing Inventory & Appraisement of the estate of Benjamin Bradshaw, dec'd, was produced in Court & ordered to be recorded.”

Mercer Co., Will Book 7 (1821-1824), p. 90 {29596}

Testator: Shadrick Bradshaw [#315] (of Mercer Co.)

Date written: 2 May 1822

Date proved: Jun 1822

Executor(s): “my wife” Mary Bradshaw [#345]

Witness(es): John Thompson, Edward C. Bradshaw [#56], Claibourn Bradshaw [#311], & James L. Bradshaw [#3113]

Description:

“I give my whole estate to my wife during her widow hood or natural life to raise, take care, and educate my children, and, in case any one of my children should be in need of any part of my estate, my wife may give it or them such part as she may think proper, not to exceed their proportion of my estate and to be accounted for at the death of my wife, and, at the death of my wife, it is my will that an equal division shall be made of my estate between all my children.”

Mercer Co., Will Book 10 (1834-1838), pp. 402-406 {34662}

“Mary C. Bradshaw [#345], Admi'stx of Shadrick Bradshaw [#315], dec'd, in account with the heirs of s'd dec'dt

Land of Shadrick as surveyor of 1000
 Deduct amt of Widow's dower 794.79
 Divide this sum between 4 heirs 264.97
 leaves to each the amt of 529.86
 132.46 1/2

In the above estimate, we have not taken into consideration the property appraised and sold shortly after the death of Shadrick Bradshaw, as it appears from evidence that all the money received from the sale was applied to the then existing debts together with such sums as were necessary for schooling, clothing, and maintain'g the family and by the prudent management of the Administratrix the estate of the dec'd has advanced in value. We therefore think it would be improper to take any thing into this settlement but the property found in the possession of the Administratrix at present and which we have already given in the foregoing estimate. Mary C. Bradshaw, widow of Shadrick Bradshaw, has rec'd her dower of the personal estate by the property to the amount of $264.46, Carter Bradshaw [#3162], one of the heirs, has rec'd in the purchase of property at the sale, together with notes, the full amt. of his share amounting to $132.46½. Hiram Bradshaw [#3152], another of the heirs, rec'd in the purchase of property and notes the sum of $132.46½. A. Robards, Guardian for Clabourn [#3153] and William Bradshaw [#3154], receives for them in property purchase and notes the sum of $264.97, which sum closes and settles the entire amount of the personal estate between the widow and heirs. Given under our hands [27 Dec 1832]. John Glover, John Thompson, & Isaac Chaplin.

We have layed off the dower of Mary C. Bradshaw, widow of Shadrick Bradshaw, dec'd on the west of the tract, including the dwelling house, garden, orchard, and barn containing by survey [33] acres, 97 poles . . . We have also allotted to her her dower in the slaves, to wit, Susan, Thompson, Emily, Stephen, Henry, and Ann . . . We have divided amongst the heirs . . . Carter Bradshaw has allotted to him Eliza and her child and Julia . . . Hiram Bradshaw has allotted to him John & Martha . . . Clabourn Bradshaw has allotted to him Peter, Lucy, and Thomas . . . William Bradshaw has allotted to him James, Isabell, and Lewis

History of Todd County, Kentucky, by J. H. Battle (Chicago, IL: F. A. Battey Publishing Co., 1884)

Biography of Robert Bradshaw [#112112] {32638}

ROBERT BRADSHAW, farmer and miller, two miles south of Elkton, Todd County, was born in Halifax County, Va., on the 22d day of May, 1834, and is the son of Benjamin and Lucy (Wilkinson) Bradshaw, who came from Virginia to Kentucky in 1840. They settled in the southern portion of Todd County, purchased a farm, on which Benjamin died, and where his widow is now living. They had a family of seven children, as follows: James, Robert, Joseph, Benjamin, Martha, Richard and Charles Bradshaw, the latter of whom is deceased. The subject of these lines, Robert Bradshaw, attained his manhood in this county; was reared on the farm, meantime attending the common schools. In early manhood he learned the carpenter's trade, at which he labored for a few years, since which time he has devoted his time to agriculture, combined with which he owns and operates a flouring-mill. This mill is noticed in the history of Elkton Precinct. Mr. Bradshaw, in 1861, married Miss Fannie Link, daughter of William and Martha Link, one of the old and honored families of the county. She was born in Todd County, April 9, 1844. Their children, six in number, are as follows: Ida, Charles, Vertie, Claude, Herbert and Melrose Bradshaw. Mrs. Bradshaw and the older children are members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. No mention in this work of the Bradshaw connection is necessary to establish their reputation for honor, as they are respected, wherever known, for their sterling worth as citizens.

Kentucky: A History of the State, 4th Edition (Battle, Perrin, & Kniffin, 1887), article on Timoleon Bradshaw (of Russell Co.) & Tarleton T. Bradshaw (of Adair Co.) {29434}

“TIMOLEON [#28584] and TARLETON T. BRADSHAW [#28583], the former a native of Russell, the latter of Adair County, are the sons of SEATH [#2858] and SARAH G. (WHITE) [#2858/1] BRADSHAW. SEATH BRADSHAW, born 23-Oct-1805, was a native of Burke County NC. He was the eighth of ten children, and when only five years of age was brought by his father to Russell County KY, and shortly afterward to Adair. He always owned his own farm, and part of the time cultivated it with slave labor, being worth at one time nearly $20,000. He departed this life 09-Mar-1873. He had married, in 1828, Miss SARAH G. WHITE, daughter of THOMAS and NANCY (ABRELL) WHITE, natives of the Old Dominion. The names of the children born to SEATH and SARAH BRADSHAW are OCTAVIA [#28581] (wife of AARON McCLURE [#28581/1]), CASANDRA [#28582] (wife of CHARLES F. JONES [#28582/1], TARLETON T.; TIMOLEON; ANN L. [#28585] (wife of J.G. WHITE [#28585/1]), CHARLOTTA W. [#28586]; and MILLIE F. [#28587] (wife of T.W. MONTGOMERY [#28587/1]), of whom all are living except CASANDRA. Mrs. BRADSHAW died 11-Apr-1855 in the forty-eighth year of her age, and in life was a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. SEATH BRADSHAW, Sr. [#285], the grandfather of the gentlemen whose names head these lines, was a native of Virginia, from where he emigrated to North Carolina, and finally to Kentucky. He was married to Miss ANN LOWE [#285/1], a native of Virginia, and the names of their children were WILLIAM [#2851], ISAAC [#2852], ISAAH [#2853], ELIJAH [#2854], SEATH [#2858], MILLIE (MILLER) [#2855], ANN (BRADSHAW) [#2856], MARY (WILSON) [#2857], and CHARLOTTE (WHITE) [#2859]. Of his sons, ISAAC and ISAAH served in the war of 1812, and he himself was a Revolutionary veteran. Mrs. BRADSHAW, his wife, was killed at the age of ninty-seven, being thrown from a horse. The BRADSHAW family are of Irish origin, and sprang from one of two brothers who came from Ireland to America. WILLIAM BRADSHAW, the son of SEATH BRADSHAW, Sr., was a man of some celebrity in the history of the politics of this section, having served in the Senate of Kentucky. TARLETON T. BRADSHAW, born 02-Apr-1832, was the third of SEATH BRADSHAW's children. He began life by farming with his father, and this has since been his vocation. He had no inheritance. but at present owns about 400 acres on the line of Russell and Adair Counties, of which 75 acres are in cultivation. He has never been married, but has kept house with his sister, CHARLOTTA W. BRADSHAW, a number of years. Mr. BRADSHAW enlisted, 04-Oct-1861, in Company D, Fifth Kentucky Volunteer Cavalry, Federal service. He participated in many of the prominent battles without a wound or being taken prisoner. He was the first sergeant of the company, and was mustered out of the service and received an honorable discharge at Louisville, 17-May-1865. Mr. BRADSHAW has a fair library and is a great reader. He is a member of the Masonic order, and has been a life-long Democrat. TIMOLEON BRADSHAW in youth received a good business education in the common schools of Adair County, and his occupation in life has been mostly in the line of merchandise. He was married to Miss SALLY WILSON, a daughter of H.W. and AGNES A. (JOHNSTON) WILSON, natives of Taylor County, and this marriage was blessed by the addition of four children: BETTY C., MARY G., EFFIE T. and WILLIAM E. He first sold goods at Russell Spring, but afterward and most of his life in Columbia, and does a flourishing trade in general merchandise. In connection with Mr. BRADSHAW's business, Mrs. BRADSHAW handles a finely selected stock of millinery, in which she does a thriving business. The stock is worth at least $6,000, including general merchandise and millinery. Mr.

and Mrs. BRADSHAW are both members of the Christian Church, and Mr. BRADSHAW is one of the trustees of the Columbia Christian College. All of the children of Mr. and Mrs. BRADSHAW are living except their eldest, BETTIE C., who died 25-July-1883. She was born 04-Mar-1863. She was a bright, intelligent girl in her youth, and at the age of thirteen became a member of the Christian Church. Her education was very thorough, and was completed at Columbia Christian College, where she graduated in June 1881, and after graduation was connected with it as teacher of painting in the Art Department, which position she held until her death. She left a large number of friends who mourned her demise, among whom was Miss DELRAY TAYLOR, an associate teacher in the same institution, who followed in a few brief months.”

N<sup>o</sup> LXXX for the Year 1735. 327

The Question being at last put upon the Amendment, it was, upon a Division, carried in the Negative, 167 to 106.

Both the Question and the Amendment were proposed by S—y, Esq; and supported chiefly by W—m P—y, Esq; and Sir W—m W—m. The chief Speakers against both were H—o W—le, Esq; H—y P—m, Esq; Sir W—m Y—t, Col. F—n, T—y, W—n, Esq; and J—ph D—r, Esq;

After the Division upon this Amendment H—y P—m, Esq; moved to adjourn, which brought on a short Debate about Order, because it was said, that when a Question had been moved, and for some Time debated, the House was so much in the Possession of it, that it could not be put off by Adjournment, without an unanimous Consent: But Mr. S—r declared, that according to the general Opinion, the Rule mentioned was to be observed at all Times before four o’Clock in the afternoon; but after that Hour, tho’ a Question had been for some Time debated, it was thought it might be put off by Adjournment, without any unanimous Consent: Whereupon the Question was put for adjourning, which was carried in the Affirmative without a Division.

The rest of the Debates shall be inserted in due Time.
